

BUSINESS TALKS WITH TAWNYA BHATTACHARYA

This intensive workshop was a final step for writers who have been through our writing workshops and are ready to start shopping themselves and their new script. Tawnya provided our writers with up-to-the-minute information about how business works in television today - information that they need to know to help them get their script read, represented, and sold.

Tawnya Bhattacharya is currently a writer on Freeform's "Famous in Love," Tawnya has also written on NBC's "The Night Shift," TNT's "Perception," "The Client List" at Lifetime and "Fairly Legal" on USA. With her writing partner, Ali Laventhol, she has developed projects with Battle Plan, Fresh Ink, Cinestar and Lionsgate. She is repped by ICM Partners*

Tawnya is also founder of Script Anatomy, a writing school that helps television writers elevate their craft through workshops and consultations. With the focus on practical development and writing tools, Tawnya has helped many writers secure representation, get hired for assignments, go on to staffing jobs on network and cable shows and sell TV pilots, screenplays, and novels.
