

THINGS THAT GET IN THE WAY OF WRITING WITH DAVID SILVERMAN

In this workshop, David Silverman provided strategies and demonstrated techniques for overcoming writers block and career stagnation. He focused on getting our writers motivated, keeping them interested in their work, to fully commit to being a lifelong writer, to focus on motivation, and to get into a flow.

David Silverman, LMFT David, in his private practice, works with creative professionals of all kinds, but especially writers, coaching them on overcoming writer's block, dealing with career burnout, and reinventing themselves.

As a writer, he created five TV shows and has written for over thirty (including for Robin Williams, "ALF," "Newhart," Tom Arnold, "Rosanne," Drew Carey, Sarah Silverman, Pee Wee Herman and "South Park"). He's been an executive producer, showrunner, co-creator of TV shows and feature films and is a Lifetime Member of the Writers Guild of America.
